

---

CONTENTS

List of Maps and Figures		vii
Acknowledgements		ix
Introduction: Europe during the Forty Years' Crisis		1
PART I	PROLOGUE	11
Chapter 1	The United States of Europe: The European Question in the 1920s Mark Hewitson	15
Chapter 2	Europe and the Fate of the World: Crisis and Integration in the Late 1940s and 1950s Mark Hewitson	35
Chapter 3	Inventing Europe and Reinventing the Nation-State in a New World Order Mark Hewitson	63
PART II	REIMAGINING THE PAST	83
Chapter 4	Richard Nikolaus Coudenhove-Kalergi, Founder of the Pan-European Union, and the Birth of a 'New' Europe Anita Prettenthaler-Ziegerhofer	89
Chapter 5	Noble Continent? German-Speaking Nobles as Theorists of European Identity in the Interwar Period Dina Gusejnova	111
Chapter 6	Imperium Europaeum: Rudolf Pannwitz and the German Idea of Europe Jan Vermeiren	135

Chapter 7	New Middle Ages or New Modernity? Carl Schmitt's Interwar Perspective on Political Unity in Europe Ionut Untea	155
Chapter 8	Rosenzweig, Schmitt and the Concept of Europe Vittorio Cotesta	169
Chapter 9	From Centre to Province: Changing Images of Europe in the Writings of Jerzy Stempowski Łukasz Mikołajewski	183
PART III	MAKING SENSE OF THE PRESENT	199
Chapter 10	Visualizing Europe from 1900 to the 1950s: Identity on the Move Michael Wintle	205
Chapter 11	Europe and the Artistic Patrimony of the Interwar Period: The International Institute of Intellectual Cooperation at the League of Nations Annamaria Ducci	227
Chapter 12	Huizinga, Intellectual Cooperation and the Spirit of Europe, 1933–1945 Anne-Isabelle Richard	243
Chapter 13	The Idea of European Unity in Heinrich Mann's Political Essays of the 1920s and Early 1930s Ernest Schonfield	257
Chapter 14	Lucien Febvre and the Idea of Europe Vittorio Dini	271
PART IV	LOOKING TO THE FUTURE	285
Chapter 15	Junius and the 'President Professor': Luigi Einaudi's European Federalism Matthew D'Auria	289
Chapter 16	Federate or Perish: The Continuity and Persistence of the Federal Idea in Europe, 1917–1957 Michael Burgess	305
Conclusion:	Europe between a Crisis of Culture and Political Regeneration	323
Notes on Contributors		333
Select Bibliography		337
Index		345