The Contested Nation
Ethnicity, Class, Religion and Gender in National Histories

Edited by Stefan Berger and Chris Lorenz
Contents

List of Maps vii
Notes on the Contributors viii
Acknowledgements xv

Maps of Europe 1789–2005 xvii

1 Introduction: National History Writing in Europe in a Global Age
   Stefan Berger and Chris Lorenz 1

2 Representations of Identity: Ethnicity, Race, Class, Gender and Religion. An Introduction to Conceptual History
   Chris Lorenz 24

3 The Metaphor of the Master: ‘Narrative Hierarchy’ in National Historical Cultures of Europe
   Krijn Thijs 60

4 Nation and Ethnicity
   Joep Leerssen 75

5 Religion, Nation and European Representations of the Past
   James C. Kennedy 104

6 The ‘Nation’ and ‘Class’: European National Master-Narratives and Their Social ‘Other’
   Gita Deneckere and Thomas Welskopp 135

7 Where Are Women in National Histories?
   Jitka Malečková 171

8 National Historians and the Discourse of the Other: France and Germany
   Hugo Frey and Stefan Jordan 200

9 Ethnicity, Religion, Class and Gender and the ‘Island Story/ies’:
   Great Britain and Ireland
   Keith Robbins 231

10 Nordic National Histories
   Peter Aronsson, Närve Fulsás, Pertti Haapala and Bernard Eric Jensen 256
vi  Contents

11 Weak and Strong Nations in the Low Countries: National Historiography and its ‘Others’ in Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries
  Marinx Beyen and Benoît Majerus

12 National Historiography and National Identity: Switzerland in Comparative Perspective
  Guy P. Marchal

13 Portuguese and Spanish Historiographies: Distance and Proximity
  Sérgio Campos Matos and David Mota Álvaro

14 Habsburg’s Difficult Legacy: Comparing and Relating Austrian, Czech, Magyar and Slovak National Historical Master Narratives
  Gernot Heiss, Árpád v. Klimó, Pavel Kolář and Dušan Kováč

15 The Russian Empire and its Western Borderlands: National Historiographies and Their ‘Others’ in Russia, the Baltics and the Ukraine
  Anna Veronika Wendland

16 Mirrors for the Nation: Imagining the National Past among the Poles and Czechs in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries
  Maciej Janowski

17 National Historiographies in the Balkans, 1830–1989
  Marius Turda

18 History Writing among the Greeks and Turks: Imagining the Self and the Other
  Hercules Millas

19 Narratives of Jewish Historiography in Europe
  Ulrich Wyrwa

20 Conclusion: Picking up the Threads
  Stefan Berger and Chris Lorenz

Selected Bibliographies

Index