Perspectives on European Film and History
Contents

- Preface 1
- Acknowledgements 3
- Prologue: Historical Film as Palimpsest 5
  - Bruno De Wever

[1] No Way to do History? Towards an Intertextual Model for the Analysis of Historical Films 13
  - Leen Engelen

[2] An Icon of Change: Andrei Rublev (1966) as a Historical Film about the Birth of Russia 33
  - Pascal Vandelaanotte

  - Brett Bowles

[4] Artist Legends and the Historical Film. Alexander Korda’s Rembrandt (1936) 75
  - Willem Heising

  - James Chapman

  - Uli Jung
[7] Reframing the Past to Change the Future. Reflections on Herbert Wilcox’s Dawn (1928) as a Historical Documentary and War Film
Liesbet DePauw

Rüel Vandenberg

Jasmijn van Gorp

[10] Vera Drake (2004): The comfort of strangers, the discomforts of strangeness
Amy Sargeant

Epilogue: The Promise of History on Film
Robert A. Rosenstone

Notes on the Contributors

Index