CONTENTS

Acknowledgements x
List of Contributors xi

Introduction 1
Rebecca Haynes

1 Political Modernism and the Cultural Production of
'Personalities of the Right' in Inter-War Europe 20
Roger Griffin

2 Hitler's Hero: Georg von Schönerer and the Origins of Nazism 38
Steven Beller

3 Gabriele D'Annunzio: From Aestheticism to
Anarchy. The Poet as Politician 55
John Woodhouse

4 Theodor Fritsch: The 'Godfather' of
German Antisemitism 73
Egbert Klautke

5 Founding Father of Modern Poland and
Nationalist Antisemite: Roman Dmowski 89
Andreas Kossert
6 Cécile Tormay: A Gentlewoman in the Graveyard of the Hunchbacks
   Gwenyth Jones
   105

7 Gyula Gömbös: An Outsider’s Attempt at Radical Reform
   Miklós Zeidler
   121

8 A Scandinavian Erratic amidst the Ruins of Empire: The Finnish Case, 1918–44
   David Kirby
   138

9 ‘Leader’ or ‘Devil’? Milan Stojadinović, Prime Minister of Yugoslavia (1935–39), and His Ideology
   Dejan Djokić
   153

10 Corneliu Zelea Codreanu: The Romanian ‘New Man’
   Rebecca Haymes
   169

11 ‘For us, beloved commander, you will never die!’
   Mourning Jure Francetić, Ustasha Death Squad Leader
   Rory Yeomans
   188

12 The Czechoslovak Sphinx: ‘Moderate and Reasonable’ Konrad Henlein
   Mark Cornwall
   206

13 Stepan Bandera: In Search of a Ukraine for Ukrainians
   David R. Marples
   227

14 The Christian Social Roots of Jozef Tiso’s Radicalism, 1887–1939
   Thomas Anselm Lorman
   245

15 Ferenc Szálasi, ‘Hungarism’ and the Arrow Cross
   Martyn Rady
   261

16 Ion Antonescu: The Paradoxes of His Regime, 1940–44
   Dennis Deletant
   278
17 Willing Bystanders: Dimitrije Ljotić, ‘Shield Collaboration’ and the Destruction of Serbia’s Jews
Jovan Byford 295

18 ‘From my point of view, I never ceased being a good Austrian.’ The Ideology and Career of Edmund Glaise von Horstenau
Georg Christoph Berger Waldenegg 313

Index 329