Romans, Barbarians, and the Transformation of the Roman World
Cultural Interaction and the Creation of Identity in Late Antiquity

Edited by
RALPH W. MATHISEN
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA

and

DANUTA SHANZER
Universität Wien, Austria
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Figures and Table
Abbreviations
Notes on Contributors

Introduction
Ralph W. Mathisen, Danuta Shanzer

PART I: CONSTRUCTING IMAGES OF THE IMPACT AND IDENTITY OF BARBARIANS

A. Literary Constructions of Barbarian Identity

1. Catalogues of Barbarians in Late Antiquity
   Ralph W. Mathisen

2. Augustine and the Merciful Barbarians
   Gillian Clark

3. Reguli in the Roman Empire, Late Antiquity, and the Early Medieval Germanic Kingdoms
   Steven Fanning

4. Were the Sasanians Barbarians? Roman Writers on the “Empire of the Persians”
   Scott McDonough

5. A Roman Image of the “Barbarian” Sasanians
   Jan Willem Drijvers

B. Political and Religious Interpretations of Barbarian Activities

6. Banditry or Catastrophe?: History, Archaeology, and Barbarian Raids on Roman Greece
   Amelia Robertson Brown

7. John Rufus, Timothy Aelurus, and the Fall of the Western Roman Empire
   Edward Watts
C. Imperial Manipulation of Perceptions of Barbarians

8 Imperial Religious Unification Policy and its Divisive Consequences: Dioecletian, the Jews, and the Samaritans
Yuval Shahar

9 Hellenes, Barbarians, and Christians: Religion and Identity Politics in Dioecletian’s Rome
Elizabeth DePalma Digeser

10 Barbarians as Spectacle: The Account of an Ancient “Embedded Reporter” (Symm. Or. 2.10–12)
Cristiana Sogno

PART II: CULTURAL INTERACTION ON THE ROMAN/BARBARIAN FRONTIERS

A. Becoming Roman: Movements of People across the Frontier and the Effects of Imperial Policies

11 The ius colonatus as a Model for the Settlement of Barbarian Prisoners-of-War in the Late Roman Empire?
Cam Grey

12 Spies Like Us: Treason and Identity in the Late Roman Empire
Kimberly Kagan

13 The “Runaway” Avars and Late Antique Diplomacy
Ekaterina Nechaeva

B. Becoming Roman: Social and Economic Interchange

14 Captivity and Romano-Barbarian Interchange
Noel Lenski

15 Barbarian Raiders and Barbarian Peasants: Models of Ideological and Economic Integration
Hartmut Ziehe

C. A New Era of Accommodation

16 Kush and Rome on the Egyptian Southern Frontier; Where Barbarians Worshipped as Romans and Romans Worshipped as Barbarians
Salim Faraji
Contents

PART I: ROMAN/BARBARIAN

17 Petra and the Saracens: New Evidence from a Recently Discovered Epigram 233
   Jason Moralee

18 Elusive Places: A Chorological Approach to Identity and Territory in Scythia Minor (Second–Seventh Centuries) 241
   Linda Ellis

   Kevin Uhalde

PART III: CREATING IDENTITY IN THE POST-ROMAN WORLD

20 Visigothic Settlement, Hospitalitas, and Army Payment Reconsidered 265
   Andreas Schwarcz

21 Building an Ethnic Identity for a New Gothic and Roman Nobility: Córdoba, 615 AD 271
   Luis A. Garcia Moreno

22 Vascones and Visigoths: Creation and Transformation of Identity in Northern Spain in Late Antiquity 283
   Scott de Brestian

23 Identity and Ethnicity during the Era of Migrations and Barbarian Kingdoms in the Light of Archaeology in Gaul 299
   Patrick Pépin, Michel Kazanski

24 Text, Artifact, and Genome: The Disputed Nature of the Anglo-Saxon Migration into Britain 331
   Michael E. Jones

PART IV: EPILOGUE: MODERN CONSTRUCTIONS OF BARBARIAN IDENTITY

25 Auguste Moutié, Pioneer of Merovingian Archaeology, and the Spurlock Merovingian Collection at the University of Illinois 343
   Bailey Young, Barbara Oehlschlaeger-Garvey

Index 359