

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

- 1 "Suppose She Brings a Big Negro Home":
Case Studies of Everyday Racism 30
- 2 The House That Race Built 50
- 3 The Coded Language of Hottentot Nymphae
and the Discursive Presence of Race, 1917 81
- 4 Of Homo Nostalgia and (Post)Coloniality:
Or, Where Did All the Critical White Gay Men Go? 108
- 5 "... For Even Though I Am Black as Soot, My Intentions
Are Good": The Case of Zwarte Piet/Black Pete 139

Coda. "But What about the Captain?" 168

Notes 175

References 193

Index 215