Table of Contents

Fabian Klose and Mirjam Thulin
Introduction: European Concepts and Practices of Humanity in Historical Perspective .............................................. 9

PART I: HUMANKIND AND HUMANITY

Francisco Bethencourt
Humankind: From Division to Recomposition .................................................. 29

Paul Betts
Universalism and its Discontents:
Humanity as a Twentieth-Century Concept .......................................................... 51

PART II: MORALITY AND HUMAN DIGNITY

Mihai-D. Grigore
Humanism and its Humanitas: The Transition From Humanitas Christiana to Humanitas Politica in the Political Writings of Erasmus ............................................................. 73

Mariano Delgado
“All People have Reason and Free Will”: The Controversy Over the Nature of the Indians in the Sixteenth Century .............. 91

Judith Becker
Conceptions of Humanity in Nineteenth-Century German Protestant Missions .............................................................. 107

Robert Brier
From Emancipation to Transcendence? Dignity, Catholicism, and the Changing Imagery of Humanity in Post-War Europe .............. 131

PART III: HUMANITARIANISM, VIOLENCE, AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

Thomas Weller
Humanitarianism Before Humanitarianism? Spanish Discourses on Slavery From the Sixteenth to the Nineteenth Century .............. 151
Fabian Klose
"A War of Justice and Humanity": Abolition and Establishing Humanity as an International Norm ....................................................... 169

Kerstin von Lingen
Fulfilling the Martens Clause: Debating “Crimes Against Humanity”, 1899–1945 ............................................................................ 187

Esther Möller
Between Globalisation and Contestation: Humanity as a Polemical
Concept Within the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement .......... ...... 209

PART IV: CHARITY, PHILANTHROPY, AND SOLIDARITY

Joachim Berger
“Une œuvre internationale d’un caractère humanitaire”:
The Appeal to Humanity in International Masonic Relations .......... 231

Katharina Stornig
Between Christian Solidarity and Human Solidarity: Humanity and the Mobilisation of Aid for Distant Children in Catholic Europe in the Long Nineteenth Century .......... 249

Gerhard Kruip
The Unity of the Human Family: A Foundation for Global Justice ...... 267

PART V: EPILOGUE

Johannes Paulmann
Humanity – Humanitarian Reason – Imperial Humanitarianism:
European Concepts in Practice ............................................................... 287

Contributors .................................................................................................. 313

Index of Names ........................................................................................................ 315

Index of Places ........................................................................................................ 321

1 Quote from Jean-Jacques
2 Fishermen stepping in t
3 For this special diplomat

In January 1873, a diplo

I have seen thos
to no other pu appearance. I t beholding one fo
the service

One time we i started praying
We are here to r.

Captair

the notorious slave ma